Subject: Commissioner Wilton Simpson Emergency Request for fuels waiver from EPA

Director Jeff Koerner and Deputy Director Hastings Read

After discussions with the Division of Emergency Management and the retail fuel industry, Commissioner Wilton Simpson is requesting a fuels waiver be submitted to EPA for the following counties to address the fuel shortages occurring in Florida following the recent declared emergency in Broward County. These counties were identified due to the need to transport fuel to the areas of the state experiencing shortages following the recent flood events. Please let me know if you have any questions.
